5. Before submitting a sessional question paper to the examination committee, subject teacher must get approval/review from the HOD of the concerned subject.
6. Subject teachers must submit the question paper to the examination committee at least one week before to the start of the examination, between working hours (4:30-5:00 PM), and if they seem unable to submit within the same time, they must arrange for a substitution through their own. Subject teachers must maintain adequate confidentiality and print the requisite number of question papers prior to submission.

Invigilation duty in sessional Examination:

1. All faculty members will be required to participate in examinations. In the event of an emergency, it is the individual's obligation to subcontract the examination duty to some other faculty member with the Principal's approval. After rejoining from leave, the faculty member must resume his or her revised duties. Disobedience or contempt for examination work/duty will result in significant disciplinary action.
2. For the smooth conduct of the examination, the Invigilator should be proactive and shall report to exam center room at least 20 minute before the beginning of examination he/she will be responsible for collects of answer books and stationary material essential for smooth conduct of examination. After the test is over, all of the invigilator's stationery must be returned to the examination control room.
3. Students must be present in the examination hall for at least 10 minutes prior to the start of the examination in case if he or she fails to do so, student will not be allow to appear in the examination without permission from the Dean Academic/Principal.
4. The invigilator must verify that all students are in college uniform along with ID card for the examination and that they are only permitted to bring stationery with them, such as a ballpoint pen and a pencil/eraser.
5. Before the question paper is distributed, the Invigilator will remind all students that cell phones, MP3 players, smart watches, and other electronic devices must be switched off and put away, not carried in pockets. If any assistance material is discovered at or near the desk that is not clearly approved, it may be considered an effort to cheat/malpractice, and the appropriate action will be taken.
6. Cases of malpractices during sessional examinations will be investigated by examination committee and members consisting of the invigilator and the subject's HOD. The appropriate action will be taken against the defaulter in accordance with the institution's and university's norms and regulations for examination administration.
7. Before attestation during the examination, the invigilator must confirm that the student has filled in all information on the first page of the sessional ANSWER SHEET precisely and neatly. No sessional Answer scripts will be allowed if any credential is left blank, for which the invigilator must provide a written explanation to the principal.

The examination hall should maintain complete silence throughout the examination, and the interchange of pens, pencils, erasers, and other items is not permitted.

Evaluation of sessional examination:

- 1. Before beginning the evaluation, the evaluator must ensure that the student has completed all information on the front page of the sessional ANSWER SHEET correctly and neatly, and that the invigilator has verified the same. If any credential is left unfilled, the respective evaluator must report to the examination committee in writing, which will be forwarded to the Dean Academic and Principal for further action against the invigilator.
- 2. The examiner/subject teachers have to collect sessional answer script from examination center between working hours (4:30-5:00 PM) and must provide the evaluated answer papers within 07 calendar days after completion of sessional examination, following the conclusion of the sessional examination in order to announce the results of the sessional examination quickly and for analysis of the findings, failing which required action will be taken. To ensure marks obtain in examination the subject teacher must show the answer script to students and get their signature on the sessional answer script before submitting the answer booklets. On the sessional answer script, the evaluator must sign along with his or her name.
- 3. On the front page of the Answer scripts, the evaluator must fill in all of the required credentials, as well as individual question wise marks, grand total marks, and grand total marks in words.
- 4. The sessional examination awards (marks) must be supplied in a standard format that has been duly attested, together with the sessional question paper. Practical sessional examination awards (marks) must be provided, together with the sessional attendance sheet. Before the start of each even/odd semester, the standard format will be sent once to each subject teacher/evaluator through e-mail. To minimize any future discrepancies, no hand written awards will be accepted.
- 5. Internal evaluation marks consisting of best of two sessional tests will be reported to the University, and the deadline for submission will be determined by HPTU notifications prior to the start of semester examinations.
- 6. Each faculty member must preserve a copy of the sessional award for future academic purposes. To maintain the secrecy without written approval from the Principal and/or Dean Academic, the award and its related paperwork will not be issued/ shown to any faculty member after they have been submitted to the examination committee.
- 7. Because this is a time-bound task, all faculty members must comply with the examination committee's announcements time to time. No more reminders will be given for the same statement.
- 8. As per time bound directions of HPTU all subject teachers must fill the internal marks in the university ERP portal through their ID and submit the hard copy to examination committee.
- 9. For the smooth execution of examination, examination committee is recommended to rigorously observe the above-mentioned norms and regulations; any form of neglect will be reported to the undersigned authority.
