Mr. Chetan Jain enlightened the students about overcoming the barriers associated with studying abroad. He discussed various countries which can be targeted for higher studies, especially for pharma students. This was followed by discussing the top pharma companies at various locations over the globe. He also discussed the opportunities available post-study. Following this, Mr. Chetan Jain steered the students about the entrance exams required for universities in various countries. He concluded his presentation by briefing about the hand-holding services offered by Study Smart Overseas Education and by solving the doubts of the students. We also conducted a counselling session for the students towards the end of the program

Seminar on Interview Skill

The seminar was held by the Laureate Institute of Pharmacy, Kathog's Placement and Training Cell to improve students' interview skills. The session began with a definition of the term "interview." Mr. Baldev Thakur (HR Manager Macleods Pharmaceutical Baddi) also spoke about the process of interview preparation. He emphasised two main points that should be kept in mind when preparing for an interview: that the interview is conducted in both directions and that the interview is conducted in both directions (interviewer evaluating you and you evaluating organisation).

The interview should be interactive rather than just answering the questions. He then went on to talk about how to prepare for a pre-interview. Before giving an interview, he also mentioned that one must first understand oneself, their strengths, and their priorities. He asked students to attend an interview after conducting extensive research on the job profile, key organisational factors, corporate culture, and work environment. He also spoke about certain commonly asked questions in an interview like, Tell me about yourself? What can you do for us? Why this organization? Why this job? and so on.

The next part of the session focused on the candidate's body language, with Mr. Thakur emphasising some very basic and important points. He stated that the candidate must be composed and that during the interview process, the candidate should always look into the eyes of the interviewer and maintain a gentle smile on their face.

Mr. Thakur also discussed the candidate's appearance, including the dress code that should be followed while attending an interview. He also provided some pointers, such as being confident and having a positive mindset about the interview while remaining humble to the interviewer, and also when a candidate is loud and fast, the interviewer may think that he or she is not confident and does not have a valid point of view.

Mr. Thakur, who is an expert on "Interview Techniques," advised that one should always structure oneself in the proper position and sit comfortably throughout the process. He even insisted that candidates bring a pen and a blank piece of paper to an interview so that they could explain themselves if necessary. With a confident, fearless, and gentle smile on one's face, one must be very precise and clear about the subject being discussed. The meeting was very productive and interactive. It was concluded with a thank you note and the presentation of a memento as a token of appreciation.

Guest lecture on "opportunities and scope of pharmaceutical industry"

On March 6, 2019, the Laureate Institute of Pharmacy's Placement and Training cell hosted an interactive session on "Insight into the Scope of Pharmaceutical Industry." Mr. K. L. Sareen, Franklin Laboratory, Ludhiana, was the event's guest speaker. Prof. CPS Verma greeted the invited speaker with enthusiasm.

Mr. Sareen discussed the pharmaceutical industry's opportunities and scope. He went over the sales career path and the various sales positions available in the industry. He stated that India has a large pool of trained pharmaceutical scientists, doctors, and researchers available for joint collaborative drug discovery research. In addition, India's pharmacy industry has low production and research and development costs. National laboratories' strength and innovative scientific manpower provide tremendous opportunities. He also mentioned that Cipla, Sun Pharma, and GSK are among India's most successful companies. The discussion progressed to a Q&A session, during which students asked questions.

One of the main topics of discussion among the students was the scope of online hospitals. Mr. Sareen shared his personal experiences with the students, providing them with valuable insight into the pharmaceutical industry.

"QbD in the Development of Analytical Methods"

Guest lecture series on the topic "QbD in the Development of Analytical Methods" was organised to enhance and upgrade the knowledge of students and faculty members. Mr. Kunal Goyal gave the first guest lecture on the topic "QbD in Analytical Method Development" on January 28, 2019 for students in M.Pharm Sem II & IV, B.Pharm Sem VI & VIII, and faculty members. Mr. Kunal Goyal is currently employed at Fresenius Kabi Gurgaon as a Senior Research Scientist<sup>1</sup>. He has given numerous talks on analytical method development, the concept of QbD and DoE, and the standardisation of herbal drugs. Dr. MS Ashawat, Principal, Laureate Institute of Pharmacy, greeted Mr. Kunal Goyal.

Mr. Kunal began his presentation by explaining the basics of QbD and the ICH Q14 guideline. He explained that the ICH is considering a guideline on analytical method development for the first time. He went over the different stages of the product development cycle and stated that analytical methods should be based on a life cycle approach. He talked about the importance of analytical methods at various stages of product development, as well as the challenges that come with developing them. He discussed the various steps in Analytical Quality by Design, the significance of risk identification, and the analytical target profile. He described design expert software and demonstrated how the QbD concept can be used in the development of analytical methods and the identification of critical parameters.

The session was highly interactive, with faculty and students asking a variety of questions about the development of analytical methods. Finally, Professor and Academic Dean Dr. Vinay Pandit proposed a vote of thanks.

REPORT ON MOTIVATIONAL LECTURE BY DR. RASMI HELD ON 04.10.2018

Dr. Rasmi, Principal of the Government College of Education in Dharamshala, visited Laureate Institute of Pharmacy on October 4th, 2018 as part of the Industry Institutional Inspire Program to speak to B.Pharm and M.Pharm students. The Laureate Institute of Pharmacy's Placement and Training cell created the IU Inspire Program to motivate and inspire students from various fields about academics and the key to success. It also educates them on the importance and advantages of higher education. The IU Inspire Program had previously hosted such events for final-year Pharmacy students. Dr. Rasmi was escorted to the university Seminar Hall by Dr. CPS Verma, Dean Student Welfare, where the session began with a lamp lighting ceremony.

Dr. Rasmi is a well-known motivational speaker who has given numerous inspirational talks all over the world. She emphasized on 32 success mantras and encouraged students to value both their parents and gurus in their lives. He was particularly interested in spirituality and religious approaches to life. ## Guest Lecture on Personality Development

The Laureate Institute of Pharmacy hosted a guest lecture on improving students' employability skills and personality development. The Laureate Institute of Pharmacy's Placement and Training Cell organised the guest lecture.

Prof. Suresh K. Chadha of Panjab University's University School of Business (UBS) discussed how students can improve their personalities in order to be hired by top companies. He emphasised the importance of students being open to learning new skills and being creative. He explained to the students that employers sought multi-skilled, dependable, and credible candidates for recruitment.

During the session, students also participated in various mind games that challenged them to think outside the box. The expert concluded the interactive session by assigning the students a task to find their life's purpose. The session was also attended by Director/Principal Prof. (Dr.) MS Ashawat and other faculty members.

Resume Preparation: A Guest Lecture

An Interactive Session was organized on "RESUME WRITING" on 18th January, 2018 for the students of B.Pharm and M.Pharm by Mr. Depinder Kumar from Abbot Pharmaceuticals, Chandigarh Branch.

The session began with a discussion of the importance of having a well-written resume. He discussed the key factors that can make a resume look impressive to an interviewer, such as leadership, teamwork, and so on.

It was also stated that the career goal should be stated clearly and simply. The student should be clear about his or her goal of joining any company as well as his or her life goals. He went on to say that students should highlight their skills in their resumes to make them look more impressive. There should be a resume for each job profile and job requirement.

Furthermore, he stated that the academic section of the resume should be in data format rather than the traditional table format. The percentile should be used to evaluate the student's academic performance. The email address listed on the resume should be in proper format, and short forms should be avoided.

He also mentioned that the cover letter should be impressive. In the resume, the student should only include true facts and avoid making any false statements. Following the true statements, a clarifying explanation should be provided.

When submitting a resume, keep in mind that it should not be more than one page long and should include a photo of the student. He responded to the students' questions. The session was very interactive, and it also taught students how to make their resumes look impressive.
