Report on A guest Lecture on Soil Conservation

Date: 21/05/2022

Laureate Institute of Pharmacy strives to model eco-friendly practices, students can become powerful proponents of environment conservation. Eco-Clubs programs on campus that specifically focus on soil conservation are an ideal way to guide learners on a meaningful route towards soil protection. As there is a special focus on conservation, the learners would be motivated to adopt practices that conserve soil, familiar with the rich biodiversity the earth is blessed with and look into the challenges faced by our environment, imbibe respect and care for our surrounding and environment, develop green consciousness and realize the importance of environment conservation. Demonstrate the use of eco-friendly practices, participate in and take up purposeful activities and projects for environmental protection and conservation. Enhance key life skills viz. problem solving, critical and creative thinking, etc. as they engage in resolving local environmental problems. A guest lecture on soil conservation was arranged by the Eco club on 21/05/2022. The lecture was delivered by the engineer of Isha Foundation Mr. Yogeshwar. The welcome of the guest and all the participants were addressed by the Principal Dr. M.S. Ashawat and the token of love was presented to Mr. Yogeshwar by Dr. M.S. Ashawat (Principal), Dr. Vinay Pandit (Wise Principal), and Dr. CPS Verma (Dean Student Welfare). After that, the lecture on soil conservation was started at 12:15 PM and completed at 01:15 PM. The different methods of soil conservation were discussed in this lecture i.e., afforestation, crop rotation, and contour plowing. Other soil conservation methods discussed as the use of terrace farming, Practice Contour Farming, Reduce Impervious Surfaces, planting a Rain Garden, using a Rain Barrel, Plant Windbreaks, and Restore Wetlands. 210 students were present in this session and the attendance of present students was marked finally; the vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. CPS. Verma. Dean student welfare. At last, the program was successfully come to end around 01:30 PM.
